

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (FAQs) FOR ANCHORIA EQUITY FUND

What is Anchoria Equity Fund?

The Anchoria Equity Market Fund is an open-ended mutual fund. The primary objective of the fund is to achieve long-term capital appreciation of its assets, through investment in a portfolio of equity securities quoted on The Nigerian Stock Exchange.

How does the Fund work?

The Fund's objective is to seek long term capital appreciation through investment in equity securities with a focus on a portfolio of stocks listed on the floor of the Nigerian Stock Exchange (NSE). Some percentage of the Fund will, however, be kept in liquid investment to provide both for redemption and portfolio rebalance to capture market values.

The Fund seeks to outperform (gross of fees) its benchmark. The objective would be achieved by taking advantage of the economies of scale that come with the pooling together of funds to actively invest. This will enable it to operate in an extremely efficient manner, thereby minimizing transaction cost.

Unit holders will be issued with an electronic subscription certificate, dispatched via e-mail or any other electronic means, which shall constitute evidence of their title to the number of Units specified on such documents. For joint holders, they shall be entitled to one certificate in respect of units jointly held by them and shall be delivered to the joint holder whose name appears first on the register of unit holders.

What is the procedure for withdrawing/redeeming investment and how long does it take?

The redemption process involves: Completing a redemption form and returning the Subscription Certificate to the Fund Manager. Once these documents are received, subject to verification of the Unit holder's signature by the Registrar, the redemption request will usually be processed within 5 working days.

Are there any penalties for withdrawing/redeeming my funds?

No, there are no penalties for withdrawals. However, redemptions before the expiration of the minimum holding period (90) calendar days, will incur a processing fee of 20% of the interest accrued on the investment.

Can I use my holdings in The Fund as collateral for a loan?

Yes. Many banks will accept units of the Fund as collateral for bank loans. However, this depends on each bank's lending policy.

How long should I stay invested in The Fund?

The Fund is open-ended and so there is no minimum period of participation. However, redemptions before the expiration of the minimum holding period of (90) calendar days, will incur a processing fee of 20% of the interest accrued of such redemptions. It is also usually advised that, as with all capital market investments, investments in the Fund should be viewed as long-term investment as returns are best optimized over the long term.

Do you pay dividends?

The Fund distributes the Fund's income where the Fund's performance permits on an annual basis and unit holders may decide to have their distributions automatically reinvested in additional units of the Fund at the offer price on the day of reinvestment or alternatively, elect to have their distributions paid via electronic transfer to the unit holder's registered bank account. The fund's focus is to operate as a growth fund and consequently its main aim will be to achieve long-term capital appreciation.
